

Reshet Investigation

33 Jabotinsky st.
5251107
Israel

Phone: +972-3-6294111

The agency's personnel work in accordance with the Private Investigators' law, and act according to the code of ethics determined by the Fellowship Societies Registrar and Israel's Bureau of Private Investigators. Reshet Investigations is a member of the Bureau of Private Investigators and a substantial part of its members serve in senior positions of its various committees.

The Reshet Investigations detective agency is run by Co-CEOs Paz Shvartz and Yaniv Shahar, two private investigators who joined forces, following many years of joint work in the field of private investigations, working both in the private and governmental sectors in Israel.

Paz Shvartz is a senior investigator with a rich military experience, expertise, and reputation in all types of investigations in the private and business sector. Highly skilled in running surveillance operations overseas.

Paz Shvartz is a highly skilled field operative and an expert in intelligence gathering. His reputation precedes him as a top computer experts in the Israeli and global arena; a world-renowned private investigator in the field of data gathering from the visible and invisible internet networks.

Yaniv Shahar Is a highly experienced senior investigator, in all types of investigations, working both for the business and the private sector. A worldly renowned expert in the field of covert operations, obtaining sensitive information and the like.

Visit Website